CHILD PROTECTION TRAINING

Following instructions of Diocesan Council, the following people must attend Child Protection training every 3 years:

- All clergy licensed in the diocese of Brisbane;
- All Church workers, including volunteers who have direct and regular contact with children in their work
- Church workers who supervise other Church workers having direct and regular contact with children in their ministry; and
- All members of Parish Council.

This training can be done online and emails with the link have been sent to those who our records show are due for this training. If you have not received this email and believe you are due for/should do this training, please advise the office as soon as possible.

Thanking you in advance for your assistance.
